Discover the qualities of a feather pillow

The importance of a good pillow is confirmed... each night. An observation that cannot be denied, because the pillow makes a huge contribution to the quality of the sleep. That is to say that you should get heaps of good advice before making your final choice. Our advisors are well aware of this and will take the time to listen to you, before showing you the BRINKHAUS Collection. The choice of a pillow is so personal that it is better to trust the experience of true professionals who will help you to compare and to determine the model that best suits your aspirations. Because top-quality down needs to be recognized and appreciated. No matter the model, because Brinkhaus presents a very large collection, of rectangular or square form.

Advice on use

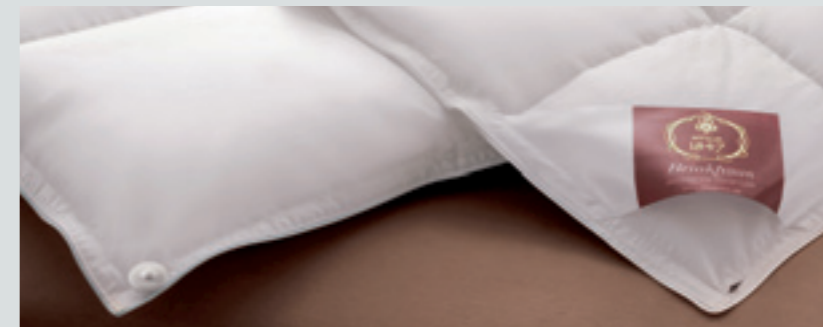

Although very robust, a duvet can be serviceable for a longer period of time if certain precautions are taken.

- Reverse the top and the bottom regularly, every fortnight if possible.
- Make sure that you shake the duvet on a regular basis in order to air it.

The Diamond duvet comes with two covers.

A light one for the summer and a second thicker one for the colder days. In the middle of winter, they can both be combined for coping with the severest cold.

DESIGNED FOR SOUND SLEEP

Extremely astutely, the Carat duvet is composed of three parts that can be inter-combined according to the season. Stuffing 100% with higher quality Mazurian goose down, and cotton percale. Available in eight sizes.

The Twin mattress overlay provides a feeling of softness, by accentuating the effect of the mattress's well-being. Composed of two parts, it mixes feathers and down according to a judiciously studied formula. Available in six sizes.

A good tip

On request, our company will take care not only of the cleaning of your eiderdowns, but also will replace the outer cover, will add some down, or will re-size them.

Blanket manufacturers, a passion shared

Installed on the banks of the Sorgue, not far from the Fountain of Vaucluse, the Brun de Vian Tiran factory perpetuates a know-how inherited from Charles Tiran, the founder of the workshop in 1808. Since 1808, eight generations have succeeded him. The leading manufacturer of natural blankets in France, Brun de Vian-Tiran today makes plaids in alpaca, lama, cashmere, wool and merino. This allows you, in winter as in summer, to benefit from exceptionally light blankets endowed with rarely equalled insulating power.
